

Environmental Science Merit Badge Clinic 2022

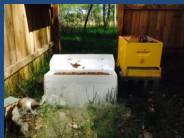

Heckrodt Wetland Reserve

August 9th from 9:00am-3:00pm

Registration and prepayment of $20 per scout is required by July 31st

Scouts will have the Opportunity to...

- Perform air quality experiments
- Clean up an "oil spill"
- Observe two different habitats
- Meet representatives in the environmental community
- Learn about life in a honey bee hive

Scouts will receive an Environmental Merit Badge Journal to record all their completed experiments and discussions.

Clinic has been updated to meet requirements!

To maximize the most out of our time, scouts must complete their required assignments before the beginning of session.

The required observation times will be completed during class. (Dress for the weather)
